Proud Graded Death Claims Tom Clifton.

Successful Term Friday night, Advancing 35 From 8th to High School

Friends and friends of the graded School on last night witnessed the closing of another successful term, when thirty-five boys and girls were admitted from the eighth grade to High School. While the term was lengthy, it was indeed all the way through, the rapid advancement of so many from her room reflected credit on their teacher, Margaret Moore.

Well merited compliment was paid Prof. King, and as far as can be judged, the most popular man in Marion for if Tom Clifton had an enemy here we never heard of it, and as he was one of the most polite and courteous gentlemen it has ever been our pleasure to meet.

He leaves a wife and three children a mother two brothers and four sisters to mourn his death. Mrs. Frank Newcomb, Mrs. Chas. Burke, of Blackford, Ky., Mrs. Cora Charles, of Brazel, Tenn., Miss Nellie Clifton, Louis and Will Clifton, all of Marion, the two brothers prominent traveling salesmen.

His health began to fail him last fall and despite all that could be done, developed into brights disease, which resulted in his death.

The funeral service were conducted at the home at 3 o'clock Sunday evening by Rev. J. B. Adams, the interment taking place immediately after at the new Marion cemetery.

Among the numerous costly floral offerings were some of the most beautiful money could buy and from some of the most noted people in the United States; Congressman Ollie M. James and the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Company of St. Louis, for whom he so successfully labored.

A test of the esteem in which he was held by the great Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co., was the fact that for seven months they put one of their best men in his territory at their expense and still allowing his salary and on notification of his death sent Mr. W. E. Anderson one of their most valued representatives and associates salesmen of Mr. Clifton, to represent them at his funeral, which with the beautiful flowers they sent must indeed be the best proof to his grief stricken wife of the love they bore him. No wonder a house so appreciative of good service and true men is so noted and prosperous.

Buried beneath such a profusion of the most beautiful flowers in the presence of so many hundred friends who were looking their love through their tears, surely it is not hard to die.

NOTICE TO FARMERS' UNION

All Locals of Crittenden County are requested to meet in the Court House at Marion on the first Saturday in June. The purpose of the meeting is for making final preparations for the handling of the 1910 crop and the transacting of other very important matters.

Please to respond promptly to this call. J. W. RASCOE, President.

It is time to make concrete walks and white wash your out buildings. See J. N. Boston for the best Portland cement and fresh lime by the barrel or small quantities.

Opera House Thursday, May 26th.

The Apollo Quintette and Bell Ringers is offered in response to a persistent call from the most experienced and discriminating committee for a company of truly high class musicians and entertainers, capable of putting on a program of great variety and superior quality. A careful consideration of the personnel of the company, their long and successful concert experience, the instrumentation (which includes legitimate instruments only) in solos and supertide note work, the vocal selections, readings, etc., will convince the thoughtful buyer that the Apollo Quintette and Bell Ringers will attract large audiences and please them greatly. The press of many of the best lyceum cities of this country uniformly attest the splendid satisfaction given by their entertainment to crowd houses.

Mrs. Maney Hollowell Burned to Death

While Running And Screaming For Aid The Flames Leaped Far Above Her Head.

Hearing some faint screaming on Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock, Mr. Wm. Russell, a prominent citizen, rushed from his home on Main street to see Mrs. Maney Hollowell racing through her yard just across the street, completely enveloped in flames. With a presence of mind unequalled he caught up one of his wife's most expensive gauze and rushed to the young woman's aid. Throwing the net around her and elevating her down on the veranda he called by his good wife, who had followed him with another net succeeded in putting out the flames. But not in time to save the poor woman's life as death came to us suffering in a few hours after.

To the credit of Mr. and Mrs. Russell be it known, they worked as only heroes can work regardless of their own danger. In but a few moments after the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Russell the yard was filled with sympathizing neighbors who were ready to help at any cost and who were simply held in awe at the terrible screams and the dropping flesh from the unfortunate woman as the flesh in places fell from portions of her body as tender hands attempted to remove her burning clothes.

By those witnessing it the sight was said to have been appalling. A mass of angry flames racing through the yard from which shrieks were heard all over the neighborhood in which she lived.

After her marriage to Hollowell and the birth of her child she became afflicted with occasional fits and for this reason it is said her husband left her, since which time her good mother was forced to take in washing at home that she might be with her child and grand child to make them a living and protect them from just such an accident, and when this occurred she had gone to her sister's, but a short distance, to have her come to stay with her daughter while she attended to some business. During her absence Mrs. Hollowell on feeling the fit coming in her, strange to say, rushed to the fire and fell in it which at once brought her to senses. But she was a mass of flames before she knew anything and terrible screams were the first intimation anyone had of the terrible scene being enacted.

Kind sympathetic business men of the town opened their purse strings and in a short time $65.00 was raised for the grief-stricken mother and little motherless child.

The mother's grief was doubly hard to bear because she was gone when it occurred. Those witnessing it said it was the most appalling sight of their lives.

GREAT PREPARATION QUARTERLY COURT PROCEEDINGS.

All Sunday Schools March to this Second Hung Jury in Case of M. V. Riley Against Geo. Conyer.

Quarterly court convened Monday, presided over by Judge Walter A. Blackburn.

The most important business before the court was the suit of M. V. Riley against Geo. Conyer for a claim of $90.00 damage in consequence of 3 horses, one cow and one hog. The case came before the last quarterly court, resulting in a hung jury. And identically the same thing occurred this time.

While there were quite a number of people in town there was very little other business of importance before the court. The recent heavy rains are principally responsible for the big crowd as the farmers could not work and while we lament any bad luck that way befall them we are always glad to have them with us.

The Association is anxious to get every citizen of Marion out to the cemetery on that day, hoping thereby to get a more general interest aroused in this work. Make your plans and arrangements to attend these ceremonies on this day.

The present officers are R. L. Moore, President; Gus Taylor, Vice-President; J. W. Blue, H. V. Stone, C. E. Weldon, and Levi Cook, Directors.

All dealers have the same kind of screen wire and door screens, but no one but Boston has the window screen that will absolutely keep out flies and at the same time will need no adjusting nor taking out when a storm comes up and blows the rain.

In seven states, Alabama, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oklahoma, Wyoming and Utah, with a combined population of over 5,000,000 not one bed for consumptives has been provided. In nine states and territories, Alaska, Delaware, Florida, Kansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, South Dakota, Vermont, and West Virginia, the number of beds for consumptives in each case is less than 50, while the combined population of these states is over 7,000,000. On the basis of 400 deaths to a million of population, which is approximately the present rate in the United States, there would be nearly 5,000 deaths annually from tuberculosis in these fourteen states with at least 20,000 cases of this disease all the time, and less than 500 beds to care for them.

New York state leads in the number of beds for consumptives provided up to May 1st with 5,476 beds; Massachusetts is second with 2,403 beds; Pennsylvania, third with 2,347 beds; Colorado, fourth with 1,489 beds; and New Mexico fifth 1,104 beds. As yet, one state in the country has made adequate provision for its consumptives. New York has set itself the task of having "No uncared-for Tuberculosis in 1915," and several cities in other parts of the country have adopted similar programs. The National Association says that tuberculosis will not be stamped out until all cases of this disease are cared for either in their homes or in institutions. With this end in view, efforts will be made to increase the number of hospital beds in this country to at least 35,000 by May 1, 1911.

OFFICERS IN TEARS AT EDDYVILLE

Hardened Officials Could not Stand
Sobs of Mrs. Anderson and her Daughter.

Eddyville, Ky., May 18.—T. S. Anderson, the former Owenton banker, arrived here today to begin his term in stripes. The once powerful president of Daviess County Bank and Trust Company was compelled to begin his new life in humiliation, just as other unfortunate are compelled to do. He was accompanied to warden's office by his aged wife and charming daughter, but they were denied admission to the private office, where he was registered.

He bore the ordeal with fortitude, the same nerve coming to support that had sustained him through the former arduous transactions of his big financial institutions. He gave his age as 68, weight 160, hair gray. He surrendered to the clerk $5 which was all the money on his person. The sobs of his wife and daughter as they kissed past the iron gates melted to tears every officer of the prison who was present.

The members of the former banker's family will remain in the city for the present, so they may be near and be allowed to minister to the old man's comfort as far as the prison regulations will permit.

Record-Press, Dear Editor:—If you will allow me a corner in your paper I will answer a question that has been asked me several times during and since the recent cold spell. The question is where in the bible is it where it says: "That the time will come when we cannot tell the winter from summer only by the putting forth of the leaves." There is no such scripture in the bible, I know that it has been said by some people ever since I can remember, and I know that some preachers say that it is in the good book and that they have read it. Now that I have been a bible reader for 60 years and have read it from lid to lid time after time and have never found it, and will give any one $10 to show it to me, or tell me where to find it. I haven't got the money now, I am like the man I once knew that was a candidate. He said, if he was not qualified to fill the office he would be by the time he was elected, that has been 25 years ago and he is not elected. So if I have not got the money I will have by the time they find the scripture.

Your for the bible,
H. E. CANNAN.

THE WINTER MUST GO

Soon all the winter's cold and snow will be a misty dream, and grass will grow and flowers bloom along each swelling stream; the little red-breast robin will be heard at early dawn and ma will make us take the rugs and shake them on the lawn, and every nook and cranny in the house will see the light and dirt and dust and cobwebs will all have to take their flight. The floors will all be scrubbed and cleaned and all the woodwork too; then we'll buy and use Chi-Namel and make everything like new. Chi-Namel Varnish—any color. All size packages. TO BORE FOR OIL IN GALLATIN CO., ILL.

Bowlerville Township People Organize Stock Company For That Purpose

The Reid Oil Co. is the name of an organization now being perfected in this city with view of prospecting for oil in Bowles township. The company is incorporated for six thousand dollars and all of the stock has been subscribed by Shawneetown parties.

A meeting of the stock holders is to be held at the office of Will A. Howell in the court house May 20th at 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors for said company and for the transaction of such business as may be deemed necessary.

Will A. Howell has promoted the scheme solicited the stock and is principally responsible for the enterprise. The Company has nearly six thousand acres of and leased including a large proportion of the Saline Coal Coal Company's land. There is every indication, according to the theories of those who have studied the situation carefully, that this is a rich oil field. Just as soon as the organization of the company can be perfected the contract will be made to drill the holes. The first will probably be bored near the collocated school house in what is known as "The Flats" near the river.—Shawneetown News Gleaner.

Note.

Shawneetown, in Gallatin County, Ill., is so near us, just across the Ohio river from Union County, that we feel that what is under the ground there is under the ground here. It is so with the coal and why not with oil?

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Black Duck, Minn.—"About a year ago I wrote you that I was sick and could not do any of my housework. My sickness was called Retroflexion. When I would sit down I felt as if I could not get up. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and did just as you told me and now I am perfectly cured, and have a big baby boy." —Mrs. ANNA ANDERSON, Box 10, Black Duck, Minn.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Although over 7,000 beds in hospitals, sanatoria, camps, and wards of tuberculosis patients were established last year, there are fully 300,000 indigent consumptives who ought to be placed in such institutions and a total of only 22,720 beds in the entire country. On May 1, 1909, there were 15,244 beds for consumptives and 294 institutions.

The annual report of the National Association shows an increase of 99 institutions and at the present rate of increase, nearly forty-five years will elapse before sufficient accommodation to provide for all the indigent consumptives in the United States will be provided, declares the National Association for the study and prevention of Tuberculosis in a

TRIP FROM HENDERSON TO MARION IN AUTO

Sunday evening Mr. Leigh Harris, the popular editor of the Henderson Journal, his estimable wife and two sweet little daughters, Francile and Dorothy, and Mr. G. M. McGinnis, drove over in the beautiful $1,250 automobile to be given away by the Journal next Saturday night.

They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Calmes and were entertained at Mr. Q. M. Conyer's popular hostelry, Hotel Crittenden.

This beautiful car so soon to be the property of the most popular young lady in the district, was admired thousands of people along the route and at Marion and more than a hundred of the citizens of our city were treated to a ride in it. The chauffeur, Mr. McGinnis, left Henderson at 2:15 Sunday afternoon, arriving at Marion at 7 o'clock, a distance overland of nearly eighty miles, and taking into consideration the rain and swollen branches, the trip was a remarkable one, reflecting credit on Mr. McGinnis as a chauffeur and the car for its ability to be driven through the mud and water the party encountered in the last twenty miles of the route.

The party were well pleased with their trip and particularly with the city, appearance of the business portion of Marion and hospitality of her citizens. The party also complimented the town on having so many concrete walks and the excellent fare at her hotels. Having spent their lives within the walls of a busy city and an Eastern one at that where your next door neighbor was a stranger, they were agreeably surprised to find our proud Kentucky people so sociable. Mr. Harris complimented the editor of the Record Press on his good fortune in casting his lot with such noble, big hearted people.

Dear Calmes:

There was so much interest manifested in our welfare by the good people of Marion and Crittenden county, will you kindly tell them, through the Record-Press, that we arrived home safely in the automobile.

As you know, we delayed several hours to let as many Marion people as possible ride in the car, and this did not give us as much daylight as we needed to reach home, but we cleared Tradewater by dusk.

There had been a regular flood on the hills between Marion and Sturgis, and roads that we had taken on Sunday with such ease, were simply bottomless Monday evening. But, while there may have been some bad roads and some bad hills, there were no bad people in Crittenden county and we shall never forget the many kindnesses on the return journey. And will you take space to thank them one and all for me.

You Marion and Crittenden county people certainly gave us true Kentucky hospitality and I intend to reciprocate it soon by sending a good man down to take some photographs and issue a special Crittenden county edition of the Journal, setting forth the possibilities for investment and mineral development in the country. How does the idea strike you?

Forgot to tell you that the automobile ran in from Sturgis to Henderson in a little over two hours. How was that after the tough trip over the rain-washed hills and flooded bottoms. It certainly is an auto worth having.

If your floor is old and stained and needs something to hide the blemishes, don't use carpet--use the Chi-Namel Ready-to-use Graining Process, or the Parquetry Floor Stenciling Process, and make the old carpets into rugs.

Any one can apply it and it will not cost you over 2¢ per sq. foot.

Special demonstration of these processes at our store on Monday May 9.

Canton (O.) Repository. — The Apollo Quintet and Bell Ringers, entertained 2000 people at the Tabernacle Friday evening in the People's Lecture Course under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Some time before the performance commenced the men in the box office had to quit selling tickets, as the rear aisle was filled with people who were willing to stand throughout the performance. Every member of the company performed his part well. The formal program was doubled on encores. The company handled the bells with ease in all their numbers, whether sacred, or patriotic or pastoral. The rhythm of familiar tunes was clearly detected amid the clanging of the bells.

Princeton (Ind) Clarion. — The entertainment by the Apollo Quintet and Bell Ringers proved a success. The whole program was rendered in excellent manner and the audience was highly entertained. The program was of such variety and quality that it was sure to please the most fastidious. It would be a difficult matter to state which numbers were the favorites. The bell ringing was certainly admirable and the sweet music of the "Bell, Bells, Bells," was given a new meaning and a new understanding.

ORR—HENRY.

In the Baptist church of Marion, at a little past eight o'clock Monday night, Howard Henry of Marion and Miss Lula Orr, of Livingston county, were united in marriage by Rev. W. E. Miller. The marriage was a complete surprise to the many friends of Mr. Henry as most of them were sincere in the belief that he was to be a confirmed bachelor and despite the fact that the books in the library showed that a license had been issued, yet when Howard was seen to arrive on time Tuesday morning at the office of the beautiful marble works of Henry & Henry, of which he is a partner, his friends seemed ready to doubt the report. But it is true. And true too, that the young woman who took on herself the sacred pledge was one of the fairest of the daughters of our neighboring county, Livingston; the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Orr. And we're to know that she has made a choice that she is not likely to regret, as her husband is one of the most highly respected men of Marion and with a character and disposition that makes him a noble husband.

The groom is our friend. We like him and wish for his self and young bride a life lived that when, after a mature old age they may lay down their burdens in sight of the city with steets of pure gold where the light of God's love makes day as long as Eternity.
